

January 29, 2020 | Press Release

Nationally Recognized Accounting Expert and Arbitrator Gregory Wolski Joins Floyd Advisory as Independent Expert Advisor

Floyd Advisory is pleased to announce that Gregory Wolski, CPA, a nationally recognized accounting expert and arbitrator, will be working with the firm on select mergers & acquisitions transaction related matters as an independent expert advisor.

Most recently, Greg served as a partner with Ernst & Young LLP, where he held several leadership roles including as the firm's global practice leader for mergers & acquisitions transaction disputes. Notably, Greg has served as an independent arbitrator or as an accounting expert in hundreds of mergers and acquisitions matters. As an independent expert advisor, Greg will be available to serve our clients' expert accounting and arbitrator needs.

Floyd Advisory LLC is a consulting firm providing financial and accounting expertise in areas of SEC reporting, transaction advisory, investigations and compliance, litigation services, as well as business strategy and valuation.

